

The Gospel ACCORDING to...

PIXAR

MAY 13 & 14 | RENÉ SCHLAEPFER

Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. But anyone who does not love does not know God, for God is love. This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. This is real love: not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends, since God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 1 John 4:7-11

We love because he first loved us. 1 John 4:19

FINDING THE LIFE I WAS MEANT TO LIVE

The big idea: When my faith is not just about something I know, but about someone I know, that changes everything.

1. I long for _____ and _____

2. I live with love and purpose when _____

- Love _____ (1 John 4:19)
- Love _____ (1 John 4:8)
- Love _____ (1 John 4:11)

3. God longs to _____

This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. 1 John 4:9

(Jesus) “For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.”
Luke 19:10

“He has not left himself without witness: He has shown kindness by giving you rain from heaven and crops in their seasons; he provides you with plenty of food and fills your hearts with joy.” Acts 14:17

“God did this so that people would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from any one of us.” Acts 17:27

NEXT WEEKEND!

Uncertainty about the world. Fear of the future. Constant attacks on cherished values. Many people feel it all piling up. And feel joy and hope draining away. The early Christians at Thessalonica felt it too. But the Apostle Paul showed them how to live as agents of hope in a world of despair. The Thessalonians became courageous world changers, and so can you! Join us for this new series and feel your hope rising!
